FINEST IN THE KINGDOM!

Prize Medal and Four Diplomas at Melbourne Exhibition, 1880.

TO BE HAD AT ALL THE BARS GLASGOW
INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION.

"A very pure spirit, of excellent flavour, and well matured. It is perfectly free from all impurities."
WM. WALLACE, City Analyst, Glasgow.

"Free from any adulteration whatever—is perfectly wholesome."
WM. JOHNSTON, Government Analytical Laboratory, Melbourne.

"We find this Whisky to possess a soft and agreeable flavour, while its odour is exceedingly delicate, ethereal, and fragrant. It contains a considerable proportion of alcohol, and is entirely free from fusil oil and other impurities."

"From a careful consideration of the foregoing particulars, we are of opinion that this is a Whisky of the highest class. It is well matured and of great purity, and is, therefore, very suitable for consumption in cases where an especially pure and good spirit is desirable."

"ARTHUR HILL HASSALL, M.D., LOND.
"EDWY. GODWIN CLAYTON, F.C.S."

P R E F A C E

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the Second City of the Empire, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, on the back of which is printed a ground plan of the International Exhibition in Kelvingrove Park, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the estimated Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1887-88, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1888. At pages 75 to 97 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the number and letters affixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, which will be found useful to strangers visiting Glasgow and the International Exhibition. In the large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, great care as usual has been taken in showing the various new streets that have been formed since last issue; but in order to make it still further useful, a large addition to the south has been made. The Map will now, therefore, include all Rutherglen, Burnside, Cathkin Park and Braes, Cathcart (Old and New), and Pollokshaws; together with the various underground railway stations, which have been marked by an asterisk. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, together with the members of Parliament for the Burgh or Division in which they are placed, viz.:—Bearsden, Bishopbriggs, Bothwell, Cambuslang, Cathcart, Lenzie, Maryhill, Millerston, Milngavie, Pollokshaws, Rutherglen, Shawlands, Shettleston, Tollcross, and Uddingston, and will be found following the City Directory proper. Govan and Parkhead have now been incorporated with the general Directory for the first time.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

TESTIMONIALS.

ALFRED WATERHOUSE, Esq., R.A., Architect—"I am glad to hear good reports of your Cows fixed at the Duke of Westminster's house."

ARTHUR W. BLOMFIELD, Esq., Architect—"I have used the Air-Pump Ventilator of Messrs. Robert Boyle & Son with satisfactory results. I believe the system to be a sound and good one, and capable of varied application with success."

Dr. B. W. RICHARDSON, F.R.S.—"Since these excellent Ventilators have been introduced we have now got perfect methods of Ventilation."

The late Sir GILBERT SCOTT, Architect—"I have used your Patent Self-Acting Air-Pump Ventilators with complete success. From experience of them in my own house and other buildings—public and private—where they have been applied under my direction, I can confidently and will always have great pleasure in recommending them."

ARTHUR CATES, Esq., F.R.I.B.A., Architect to the Crown, &c.—"I have used your Air-Pump Ventilator with satisfactory result. Those fixed under my direction at the Library of the Inner Temple have realized my expectations, and completely fulfil the object which I had in view. I consider this application of them a severe test, and the success which has attended it confirms the statement which you make as to their efficacy."

Sir WILLIAM THOMSON, F.R.S., Glasgow University—"I have seen several different forms of Mr. Boyle's Air-Pump Ventilator in actual operation, and have much pleasure in testifying to their efficiency. They thoroughly realize the favourable anticipations which I formed from experiments on models shown to me by Mr. Boyle. Having one fitted up in my yacht, I find it has caused a very decided improvement in the draught."

Robert Boyle & Son's Latest Improved Patent (1882) Soil-Pipe Ventilators

"I have often made use of the Air-Pump Ventilator for soil-pipes, &c., and consider it most admirable. It is decidedly the most efficient fixed foul-air withdrawing medium that I ever met with."—W. EASSIE, Esq., C.E.

"Boyle's Patent Self-acting Air-Pump Ventilator, which does not revolve, is the best soil-pipe ventilator that I know of."—ERNEST TURNER, Esq., F.R.I.B.A., &c.

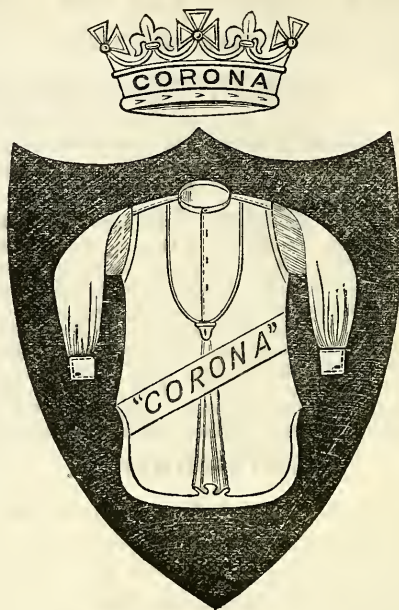

ROBERT BOYLE & SON (LIMITED),

Ventilating, Sanitary, and Heating Engineers,

110 BOTHWELL STREET, GLASGOW, and 64 HOLBORN VIADUCT, LONDON, E.C.

* * CAUTION.—Beware of spurious and worthless imitations of the Air-Pump Ventilator, which unprincipled persons are attempting to palm off upon the public.

THE "CORONA" SHIRT.

As competition becomes keener and keener, the efforts of Business Men are becoming more and more concentrated on "Pushing the Trade" and "Making Sales," so much so that only very few devote any considerable time to the technicalities and improvement of the goods which they produce.

Looking back on the long number of years during which we have held the first position in the Shirt Trade, we find that of the many improvements that have been introduced the bulk of them have originated with ourselves. These have not been effected without very great care and attention—care and attention to minute matters which to others may have seemed at times to be somewhat fruitless, but to which we cannot but attribute our uninterrupted and unqualified success. The "CORONA" is perhaps the best practical example of the truth of these remarks. It is our latest and most perfect form of Shirt, either for Everyday Wear or Evening Dress, and excels in ELEGANCE, COMFORT and ECONOMY all our previous productions in connection with the Shirt Trade.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, and 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103), with the Duty on Policies of Sea Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties.

The Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97, came into operation on 1st January, 1871, and by § 3 the exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved.

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed, not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.
2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.
3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)
4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding thirty-five years is to be charged with the lease duty.—(§ 96.)

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—(§ 97.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)

8. Instruments relating to the property of the crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision is made to the contrary.—(§ 5.)

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2).

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2).

11. An appropriate stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2).

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—(§ 11.)

14. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of stock or marketable security, the duty to be calculated on the value, according to the average price at the date of the instrument.—(§ 12.)

15. If the instrument contains a statement of the current rate of exchange, or average price, and is stamped accordingly, it is to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that the instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—(§ 13.)

16. The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, and to instruments wheresoever executed, relating to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—(§ 17.)

17. No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—(§ 17.)

18. If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, penalty, £10.—(§ 22.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—

All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; and 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 16, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enforced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country.—See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson & Welsby, 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceeding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

Modes in which Duty may be Paid.—When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

Mode of Proceeding.—(2.) The commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and on his application such case may be set down for hearing in the proper court.

(3.) Upon the hearing of such case (due notice of which is to be given to the commissioners) the court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is so chargeable.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with such erroneous assessment, together with any penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid by the commissioners to the appellant, together with the costs incurred by him in relation to the appeal.

(4.) Signed by or on behalf of the drawer thereof, but which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been presented for acceptance or accepted or endorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill or note is produced identical in every particular, except in correction of such error or omission as aforesaid, with the spoiled bill or note :

(5.) The following executed instruments—

(a.) Presentation to an ecclesiastical benefice not followed by institution :

(b.) Executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void in law from the beginning :

(c.) Executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit by reason of any error or mistake therein for the purpose originally intended :

(d.) Executed by any party thereto, but which, by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed:

- (e.) Executed by any party thereto, which, for want of the execution thereof by some material and necessary party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is in fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:
- (f.) Executed by any party thereto, which, by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose:
- (g.) Executed by any party thereto, which, for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, becomes null and void:
- (h.) Executed by any party thereto, which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected, being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

Provided:—

(1.) Executed Instruments—

- (b.) The application is made within six months after the date of the instrument, or, if not dated, within six months after the execution by the person by whom it was first or alone executed. Except, 1. Where, from unavoidable circumstances, any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given up to be cancelled within the aforesaid period, and in that case within six months after the date or execution of the substituted instrument; 2. Where the spoiled instrument has become void for want of enrolment or registration, and in that case within six months next after it has so become void; 3. - (c.) No action has been brought or suit commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence:

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 16. The commissioners may give in lieu other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or, at their discretion, the same value in money, deducting the proper allowance on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 17. A stamp not spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which the person has no immediate use, the commissioners may, if they in their discretion think fit, repay the amount in money, deducting the proper discount. The stamp to be delivered up to be cancelled, and satisfactory proof to be given that it was purchased by him with a bona fide intention to be used, and that the applicant has paid the full value thereof without any deduction (except only the amount of such discount), and that the stamp was so purchased within the period of six months next preceding the application at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person appointed to sell and distribute stamps or duly licensed to deal in stamps.
